Photoshop for beginners. Photoshop Hello friends! Today let's talk about Photoshop, more precisely about Photoshop video tutorials and where you can find them. I prefer to learn Photoshop from videos that can be found freely available. There are many sites where they put tutorial videos in Russian. And there are videos in English. Although, if English is not a problem for you, you can always find tutorial videos in English. Lately, a lot of video tutorials have appeared on YouTube, which are translated into Russian. For those who don't want to spend a lot of time on translation, I am posting a video lesson on English: Today I want to tell you about how to use English transcription in Russian translation. Why do you need English transcription at all? Because there is a Russian one. For example, in Google Translator you can enter a word and it will usually give you a link to the Russian translation of this word. In YandexTranslator you can enter a word and it will offer you the translation with the transcription.
