Aaand it was dead last. Above last place. With three amazing, wonderful and gas forming results in one awesome PUNISHING PUNKS & PICTURES division. Can you name three people of particular significance? I say particularly significant to you here because if you've seen some of the other posts relating to the PUNS and PUPS, you know that my interests are usually fairly vague and that I'm not really into giving you a politically correct checklist of people's perfect lives or other such nonsense. Nah, really, these were three people I knew personally. Very close bonds, as it happens. I was in two of these scenes and in one of them, two people got locked in a room for half an hour with an overweight guy on a dingy mattress. But what?... I digress. Let's get down to business, shall we? 1. Peter This picture is not me. I have no idea what picture it is. I was at an unsigned gig a few months ago and a 20-something girl didn't really know what to do with her hands, so, to spice things up, she started touching herself with her hands. In front of about 20 people, one of whom was a goth guy who, purely out of curiosity, decided to try and see what she was doing. At the start he quite liked it. He was entranced, just watching her as she moved around touching her body, so he suggested they go to the pub later, but the girl didn't want to. He suggested going back to his place, and she didn't want to do that either. She said she couldn't think of anywhere better to be on this Saturday afternoon. But they ended up going to a secluded little tumbledown house that the goth guy had, and while there, he stripped naked in front of her. This was about 1 am. So yes, it would be accurate to say that that 20-something girl gave the goth guy a lovely, lovely pony from out of the blue, a beautiful, shining pony. And this was done because he said it needed licking. Licking. She licked it. Then she dressed and left, leaving him naked on his bed and crying. By now that lovely pony and I have moved in together.
