The journal will be announced at the 2011 Carmina Alba Conference in Ottawa and is set to publish its first issue in 2012. The inaugural issue features six original English-language poems and three original French-language poems. Both Michael F. Gilligan and Dawn Hersey are among those contributing translations. The purpose of the journal is to promote the writing of new, short poems by Canadian poets in any of the national languages: English, French, Acadian French (Sainte-Anne-des-Plaines), and Inuktitut (Inuvik). The first issue of the journal will be available for free on the following website: or from the website of the Carmina Alba Conference. Please visit the new website for details.Neural tube defects and folic acid use in an Australian community.
